

Object - authorization

The elements contain the information concerning the authorization

| Field              | Description                                                                                                                                                                                    | Mandatory | Format                         | Example           |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|--------------------------------|-------------------|
| number             | Authorization number issued by the acquirer authorization server. This field is filled in if the authorization request is granted.In test environment, the simulator is returned A55A. | Yes       | AN6                            | 123456            |
| date               | Date and time of authorization : Format : dd/mm/yyyy HH24:MI                                                                                                                                   | Yes       | AN17                           | 18/05/18 16:12:29 |
| authorizedAmount   | Amount authorized in transaction : 100 is 1,00 Euro                                                                                                                                            | No        | AN                             | 100               |
| authorizedCurrency | Amount used in transaction.                                                                                                                                                                    | No        | AN                             | 978               |
| retry              | response to the authorisation request in version 1.6.2 from CB2A.                                                                                                                              | No        | Object - retry |                   |